DAMILANO

"Lecinquevigne" refers to the five vineyards where the Nebbiolo grape for Barolo is harvested.

The Damilano company is one of the oldest wineries in Barolo. The family business dates back to 1890 when Giuseppe Borgogno started cultivating and producing wine from the grapes from his own vineyards. Giuseppe improved the general quality of the vinification system and of the wines, turning the winery into a "jewel" of the Langhe area. In 1997 Giuseppe passed the winery on to his grandchildren Paolo, Mario, and Guido. Together, they are working to keep and improve the level of the quality of the Damilano wines. Lecinquevigne is made from the assembly of grapes from five vineyards located in the most suitable areas for the production of Nebbiolo. Sourcing from multiple vineyards allows for the finest qualities of the calcareous-clay soil of Piedmontese municipalities such as Barolo, Grinzane Cavour, Monforte to be incorporated into the wine. The vineyards all sit at a south-east exposure.

Reviews	"A taut, linear red, with macerated cherry and plum flavors augmented by hay, spices, and iron. This has ample fruit and savory notes waiting to shine through once the tannic structure mellows. Best from 2026 through 2045. 5,800 cases made." - BS, Wine Spectator

Reviews “With fruit from Brunate, Liste, Cerequio, Cannubi and Raviolo, the 2019 Barolo Lecinquevigne is a little subdued on first nose and would benefit from more time in bottle. This wine offers an appellation-wide taste of Nebbiolo, and the focus, consequently, is on the grape, more than any single vineyard. These kinds of blends work very well in a vintage like 2019 that holds its own in terms of balance, intensity, and texture. With 70,000 bottles made, this is the most accessible and affordable Barolo in the Damilano portfolio.”

“Very perfumed and pretty with ripe berry, terra-cotta, and rose petal aromas and flavors. Medium-bodied with fine tannins and a lovely creamy texture. Fresh and bright. Delicious now but will age nicely. Drink or hold.”
- JS, JamesSuckling.com

“A wine of gentleness and refinement, with bright plum fruits and warm spice apparent in the aromas. It’s ample in the palate yet round-contoured. The tannins are unimimidating and supportive, resonant and flavory. Best in Show, Decanter World Wine Awards.”
- Decanter
