Barolo Liste 2008

CSPC# 725254

750mlx6

14.5% alc./vol.

Grape Variety	100% Nebbiolo
Winemaker	Beppe Caviola
Vineyards	Grapes are from the municipalities of Barolo, (single vineyard Liste), where the vines are approx. 35 years old, and the soil is of calcareous-clay. Yields are approx. 4-5 tons per hectare. Born from the noble Nebbiolo varietal cultivated in Barolo, this wine benefits from the generous, calcareous-clay soil with a good quantity of sand that is found on the prestigious Cannubi hill. An old vine wine, Barolo Liste is crafted from 35-year-old vines with desirable east exposure.
Vinification/ Maturation	Rotary fermenter for 8 days fermentation at a controlled temperature. Aged in 50% new tonneaux, 50% barriques, 2nd/3rd ageing for 24 months.
Tasting Notes	The wine has a striking garnet, ruby red color with subtle orange reflections. It has an ample nose with evident notes of cherry and plum that evolve into hints of tobacco, licorice and cocoa. On the palate, it has a harmonic flavor that is pleasantly dry, with soft tannins and full body.
Serve with	Perfect with white truffle-based dishes and braised meat, ideal with the refined dishes of the great international gastronomy. Serve at 16-17°C.
Cellaring	Ready to drink, excellent also within the next 10/15 years.

Reviews	"Leads off with sandalwood, cedar and graphite aromas, followed by cherry, licorice, leather and mineral flavors. Intense and rich, remaining elegant and firmly structured. Offers a fine aftertaste of spice and mineral. Best from 2015 through 2030. 580 cases made." - BS, Wine Spectator "The 2008 Barolo Liste shows the more muscular, sinewy side of Barolo from the town of Barolo. The 2008 is a big, imposing wine, but I am not sure it has enough fruit to stand up to the considerable French oak. Dark cherries, plums, licorice and new leather flow through to the authoritative, virile finish. If the Liste fleshes out it will merit a higher score, but today the wine is very compact. Anticipated maturity: 2016-2026. These 2008s from Damilano required considerable aeration to show the full breadth of their potential. At times, the wines still seem excessively oaked." - AG, Wine Advocate "Despite the difficult vintage, this is a fantastic wine. It opens with bright, bold aromas of ripe fruit, blackberry, tobacco, cedar, licorice and dried rosemary. There's a pleasurable touch of chocolate fudge that backs the smooth, rich tannins. This wine should last long in your cellar." - ML, Wine Enthusiast "From a cru in the commune of Barolo, Liste is brisk and bright in 2008. The formidable tannins don't allow the wine to yield a lot of flavor at the moment, limited to edges of red spice. If you open this now, give it a day in a decanter; better to cellar it for ten years." - Wine & Spirits Magazine

Reviews	"A wine, with lots of dried strawberries and mango character and light vanilla bean undertones. Full bodied, with velvety tannins and a fruity finish. Best after 2014." - JS, JamesSuckling.com
Reviews	"A pretty, delicate style, offering a perfume of flowers, berries and spice, picking up tobacco and the telltale Nebbiolo tannins on the palate. A briar note extends on the finish. Best from 2014 through 2027. 100 cases imported." - BS, Wine Spectator
	"The 2007 Barolo Liste is another imposing wine from Damilano. Here the tannins and overall structure are much more in evidence, in keeping with a vineyard that tends to yield powerful Baroli. Intense dark fruit, leather, licorice and spices are some of the notes that emerge from this super-ripe, opulent Barolo. This isn't the most elegant wine in the lineup, but there appears to be more than enough fruit to keep up with the tannins. Anticipated maturity: 2015-2025. Damilano's 2007s Baroli are big, massive wines that appear to need several years in bottle. They have plenty of underlying structure, and while ripe, they are also well balanced." - AG, Wine Advocate
	"Lush, rich, smooth and deep with minerals; long and dense." - ADB, The Tasting Panel

Reviews “The 2001 Barolo Liste is a masculine, brooding Barolo, darker in color, and offering aromas of menthol and tar along with masses of dark, backward fruit on a large-scaled, somewhat austere frame, finishing with substantial tannins. Today this shows a lot of oak, but it also has plenty of structure, and seems to be a potentially outstanding Barolo. Anticipated maturity: 2009-2018.”

- AG, Wine Advocate

“Aromas of plums, spices and milk chocolate follow through to a full-bodied palate, with chewy tannins and a long finish. Tight and structured. Needs to open with bottle age. Best after 2008. 580 cases made.”
