Kettle Valley Winery | Naramata, Okanagan Valley | www.kettlevalleywinery.com

Drawing its name from the Kettle Valley Railway, which traveled through the Naramata area on the east side of Okanagan Lake, the winery opened to the public in 1996. Kettle Valley Winery is known for its dark, intense and well structured red wines, including Pinot Noir, Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and blends such as "Old Main Red". Chardonnay has been the main white wine produced, but in recent years Pinot Gris, Gewürztraminer, Semillon and Sauvignon Blanc have also proved popular. They are all flavourful and aromatic, with a rich mouth feel.

Bodega Sottano SA | Mendoza | www.bodegasottano.com

Don Fioravante Sottano, from Veneto in Italy, settled down in Mendoza in 1890. He was a pioneer, promoting the agriculture and the wine industry in the region, planting vineyards to produce wine in his own winery and, later on, exporting it. He motivated others to follow in his footsteps. Nowadays, encouraged by the passion that their predecessors passed on, the three brothers: Diego, Pablo and Mauricio Sottano continue building the future of the family business on solid foundations.

Alkoomi Wines | Frankland River, Western Australia | www.alkoomiwines.com.au

The Alkoomi vineyards and winery are located in the Frankland River district of Western Australia's Great Southern wine region. Merv and Judy Lange established Alkoomi in 1971 and in 2010 handed the reins of the 80,000-acre estate to their daughter Sandy and her husband Rod Halleff. Since climatic conditions are similar to those of Bordeaux in France, it is not surprising that this region produces some of the best wines made in Australia. The name Alkoomi is taken from local aboriginal dialect and means 'a place we choose'. The logo represents a distinctive Australian plant (Xanthorrhoea Preissi - the Australian Grass Tree) which grows in the area.

FRANCE - BORDEAUX

Left Bank

The Left Bank consists of wines from the following major appellations; Margaux St. Julien Pauillac St. Estephe, Haut Medoc and Pessac Leognan appellations. In total, in the Left Bank of Bordeaux, the best wines come from eight different appellations or communes located primarily in what is often referred to as the Medoc. The Left Bank of Bordeaux is the home to all of the official 1855 Classified Bordeaux wines. The Medoc also includes the Haut Medoc, Moulis, Medoc and Listrac appellations. In total, there are 13,727 hectares planted with vines in the Medoc.

Right Bank

While Pomerol and Saint Emilion together have roughly 6,369 hectares planted with grape vines, the entire area known as the Right Bank is much larger and more diverse, when you consider the important, satellite appellations. While all Bordeaux wines are blends, Merlot and Cabernet Franc are the dominant grape varieties, in the Right Bank. Although you will find some growers also plant Cabernet Sauvignon, Malbec and Petit Verdot as well. This unique combination of soil types and grape varieties are a large part of what has helped make the wines from Right Bank of Bordeaux so famous, as well as sought after all over the world.

Domaine Reine Juliette | Languedoc-Roussillon | www.domainereinejuliette.com/

Domaine Reine Juliette, supposedly named after a visit to the area by Queen Juliette, is the family vineyard of Guillaume Allies. It has vineyards on the southern side of the modern A9 Montpellier-Beziers road, which itself follows the course of the Roman Via Domitia, the main road from Italy to Spain. This southern part of the Pinet appellation is along the edge of the Bassin de Thau, a huge inland sea, and is the most affected by cooling sea breezes, which accounts for the particular freshness of expression in these whites.

This legendary location produces exceptional wines, protected since 1772 by the first appellation of origin awarded in the entire world - 83 years before Bordeaux wines were officially classed. The creation of the Estate owes nothing to chance: the Garai family simply selected the best 7 parcels of the land in the region, hence the name - Hétszolo means "7 parcels of vineyard" in Hungarian. Following a turbulent 20th Century, the prestigious Tokaj-Hétszolo Estate became one of the Michel Reybier vineyards in 2009, joining Cos d'Estournel, Saint-Estèphe Grand Cru classé, Château-Maubuzet and Goulée Médoc.

The origins of the Damilano farming company date back to over a century ago, when Giuseppe Borgogno, the great-grandfather of the current owners, started to grow and make wine from his own grapes. This tradition was kept up by Giacomo Damilano, the founder's son-in-law, together with his children until it passed on to his four grandchildren: Guido, Margherita, Paolo and Mario, who very attentively manage their forefathers' land today. The wines produced are renowned for their upright style and the estate is widely appreciated thanks to the strictness and passion that accompany all of the company's activities.

Quinta das Carvalhas | Douro | www.realcompanhiavelha.pt

Quinta das Carvalhas is one of the most emblematic and spectacular properties in the Douro Valley, dating back to 1759. The winery enjoys a prominent position on the left bank of the Douro river, in Pinhão, with the estate covering the entire hillside facing the Douro river and part of the slopes of the right bank of the tributary Torro river. Quinta das Carvalhas is characterized by very particular edaphoclimatic conditions. Its vines are located at various altitudes - extending from river border to the top of the slope. The largest vine surface of the Quinta faces a northern sun exposure, yet, another fraction of the vineyard, on the other side of the mountain, faces a southern exposure.

Rust en Vrede | Stellenbosch | www.rustenvrede.com

First to specialize in the exclusive production of red wine only, Rust en Vrede is one of South Africa's premium wine estates. Their full-bodied, new-oak matured wines are a manifestation of the supremacy of the Stellenbosch region when it comes to the making of truly great red wines. Rust en Vrede is proud to be part of this and continues to pursue the excellence that has characterized wines from Stellenbosch and specifically their private Estates, who undoubtedly are the heartbeat of this magnificent region.
