Kettle Valley Winery | Naramata, Okanagan Valley | www.kettlevalleywinery.com

Drawing its name from the Kettle Valley Railway, which traveled through the Naramata area on the east side of Okanagan Lake, the winery opened to the public in 1996. Kettle Valley Winery is known for its dark, intense and well structured red wines, including Pinot Noir, Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and blends such as "Old Main Red". Chardonnay has been the main white wine produced, but in recent years Pinot Gris, Gewürztraminer, Semillon and Sauvignon Blanc have also proved popular. They are all flavoured and aromatic, with a rich mouth feel.

Don Fioravante Sottano, from Veneto in Italy, settled down in Mendoza in 1890. He was a pioneer, promoting the agriculture and the wine industry in the region, planting vineyards to produce wine in his own winery and, later on, exporting it. He motivated others to follow in his footsteps. Nowadays, encouraged by the passion that their predecessors passed on, the three brothers: Diego, Pablo and Mauricio Sottano continue building the future of the family business on solid foundations.

Alkoomi Wines | Frankland River, Western Australia | www.alkoomiwines.com.au

The Alkoomi vineyards and winery are located in the Frankland River district of Western Australia's Great Southern wine region. Merv and Judy Lange established Alkoomi in 1971 and in 2010 handed the reins of the 80,000-case estate to their daughter Sandy and her husband Rod Hallett. Since climatic conditions are similar to those of Bordeaux in France, it is not surprising that this region produces some of the best wines made in Australia. The name Alkoomi is taken from local aboriginal dialect and means 'a place we choose'. The logo represents a distinctive Australian plant (Xanthorrhoea Preissi - the Australian Grass Tree) which grows in the area.

Right Bank

While Pomerol and Saint Emilion together have roughly 6,369 hectares planted with grape vines, the entire area known as the Right Bank is much larger and more diverse, when you consider the important, satellite appellations. While all Bordeaux wines are blends, Merlot and Cabernet Franc are the dominant grape varieties, in the Right Bank. Although you will find some growers also plant Cabernet Sauvignon, Malbec and Petit Verdot as well. This unique combination of soil types and grape varieties are a large part of what has helped make the wines from Right Bank of Bordeaux so famous, as well as sought after all over the world.

The nearly 200-year old estate had been through several name changes throughout its history, but had always remained a part of the extended Gouffier lineage. The property oozes history, as evidenced by its stunning, stone-domed cellar, which had once served as a bunker in the time of Napoleon Bonaparte. Recent vintages of Gouffier have reflected the intelligent approach of infusion, demonstrating perfect balance, a flawless integration of ageing, resulting in wines of energy and precision which have garnered attention and accolades in France.

Domaine Reine Juliette | Languedoc-Roussillon | www.domainereinejuliette.com/

Domaine Reine Juliette, supposedly named after a visit to the area by Queen Juliette, is the family vineyard of Guillaume Allès. It has vineyards on the southern side of the modern A9 Montpellier-Beziers road, which itself follows the course of the Roman Via Domitia, the main road from Italy to Spain. This southern part of the Pinet appellation is along the edge of the Bassin de Thau, a huge inland sea, and is the most affected by cooling sea breezes, which accounts for the particular freshness of expression in these whites.

This legendary location produces exceptional wines, protected since 1772 by the first appellation of origin awarded in the entire world - 83 years before Bordeaux wines were officially classed. The creation of the Estate owes nothing to chance: the Garai family simply selected the best 7 parcels of the land in the region, hence the name - Hétszölő means "7 parcels of vineyard" in Hungarian. Following a turbulent 20th Century, the prestigious Tokaj-Hétszölő Estate became one of the Michel Reybier vineyards in 2009, joining Cos d'Estournel, Saint-Estèphe Grand Cru classé, Château-Maubuzet and Goulée Médoc.

The origins of the Damiano farming company date back to over a century ago, when Giuseppe Borgogno, the great-grandfather of the current owners, started to grow and make wine from his own grapes. This tradition was kept up by Giacomo Damiano, the founder's son-in-law, together with his children until it passed on to his four grandchildren: Guido, Margherita, Paolo and Mario, who very attentively manage their forefathers' land today. The wines produced are renowned for their upright style and the estate is widely appreciated thanks to the strictness and passion that accompany all of the company's activities.

Tenuta del Portale, located in the heart of the production area of the Aglianico del Vulture, was born in 1990 thanks to the passion of the D'Angelo family whose commitment has always been to capture the character of the grapes and the zone superbly in the bottle. The peculiar pedoclimatic conditions of this area (a soil of volcanic origin), the position of the vineyards, the harsh winters and the warm summers, with a considerable temperature range between day and night, are the reasons for the body, the complexity, the strength and the remarkable intensity of the scent of these wine.

Quinta das Carvalhas | Douro | www.realcompanhiavelha.pt

Quinta das Carvalhas is one of the most emblematic and spectacular properties in the Douro Valley, dating back to 1759. The winery enjoys a prominent position on the left bank of the Douro river, in Pinhão, with the estate covering the entire hillside facing the Douro river and part of the slopes of the right bank of the tributary, Torto river. Quinta das Carvalhas is characterized by very particular edaphoclimatic conditions. Its vines are located at various altitudes - extending from river border to the top of the slope. The largest vine surface of the Quinta faces a northern sun exposure, yet, another fraction of the vineyard, on the other side of the mountain, faces a southern exposure.

AA Badenhorst Family Wines | Swartland | www.caperitif.com

Danish model and mixologist, Lars Eirik Lyndgaard Schmidt, discovered the Caperitif ingredient in name only, whilst thumbing through his copy of the Savoy Cocktail Book. His curiosity was peaked and he began a journey of rediscovery. Enter South African wine maker, Adi Badenhorst, who, via the via, was found by our mixologist and the pair struck up a friendship and a partnership. Their love child: the reborn Caperitif.

Ken Forrester Vineyards | Stellenbosch | www.kenforresterwines.com

In 1993 Ken Forrester and his wife Teresa set their hearts on an historic vineyard in Stellenbosch. With most of the vineyard planted to Chenin Blanc it was decided to enlist the help of good friend and Top Winemaker, Martin Meinert, with the quest to produce Chenin Blanc that could rival any white wine in the world. Ken now produces numerous other products, and they have received massive international acclaim with literally hundreds of awards and accolades and the growth of the brand has been nothing short of meteoric, in a 19 short years.
